

Update26

2021

06.10.2021

---

1. Swiss Sailing Club Champion 2021

The Regattaclub Bodensee (RCB) is Swiss Champion 2021. With a great performance also on Sunday, the team with Julian Flessati, Stephan Ammann, Lea Rüegg and Jonathan Rutishauser deservedly won the title. On the second place of the overall ranking sailed Bordée de Tribord La Neuveville (BT) with David Biedermann. 3rd place for Seglervereinigung Kreuzlingen (SVKr) with Tom Rüegg.

2. Swiss Sailing Challenge League final 2021

From October 1-3, 2021 the final of the Swiss Sailing Challenge League final took place in Neuchâtel. The people in charge of the Cercle de la Voile de Neuchâtel and the sailors kept more than once an eye on the weather forecast. However, 27 races were completed by the Sunday afternoon. The Sunday was very thrilling, because after every flight the possible promoted teams to the Super League and probably relegated teams to the Promotion League changed almost after every flight. The event was dominated by the Zurich Yacht Club (ZYC) with Lukas Looser, Michael Looser, Til Winkler and Julian Frey. The previous participation in the J70 European and Swiss Championships was very worthwhile. The ZYC is also promoted to the Super League for 2022. The neighboring Segelclub Enge (SCE) with Christian Sprecher, Pascal Abegg, Fabian Meier and Jonin Zumsteg took second place at the regatta, but is first in the final classification of the Challenge League 2022 and accompany the ZYC to the Super League.

The women's team from the Seglervereinigung Thalwil (SVT) sailed very well, especially on Sunday. Mara Bezel, Simona Hegi, Giulia Corbelli and Claudia Wieland-Weinmann finished third; very little was missing for a renewed promotion to the Super League. Big enjoyment on the other hand in Neuchâtel; Cercle de la Voile de Neuchâtel (CVN) with Jean-François de Cerjat, Philippe Inversin, Chloé Fischer, Mathias Mermod and Jean-Luc Dreyer moved up to 4th place of the event's ranking with the last race on Sunday, and consequently CVN with the 3rd place in the overall ranking will join the Super League in 2022.

At the lower end of the table, some clubs will be relegated from the Challenge League. Especially worth to be mentioned is the team from the Cercle Voile de Vevey-la-Tour (CVVT). Together with Camille Vallotton - twelve-year-old and thus the youngest league sailor - CVVT won the last race after a weak start.

3. SSL CUP 2021 in Zürich

The season is not over yet! On October 9th and 10th, the Zurich Sailing Club ZSC is organizing the SSL Cup for the League. 16 club teams have signed up for this. In addition to clubs like RCB, RCO and BT, many clubs from Zurich and the region are sailing on the league's last sailing festival 2021. As always, the races can also be followed via tracking.

4. SAILING Champions League 2021 - Final in Porto Cervo

From October 7-10, 2021, the best club teams in Europe will fight in Porto Cervo in Sardinia for the title "Best Yacht Club of the Year". Among them are the two Swiss teams: Seglervereinigung Kreuzlingen (SVKr) as Swiss Champion 2020 (winning the Super League) with Tom Rügge, and the Regattaclub Oberhofen (RCO - winner at the qualifier event in Kiel in 2021 - with Nick Zeltner and the others Juniors of the RCO.

The event can be experienced on Saturday and Sunday, from 12:00 - 16:00 via live stream:

Saturday: <https://fb.me/e/6WQNgOKPp>

Sunday: <https://fb.me/e/Tyb7fILh>

We say: "Hopp Schwyz".

5. Swiss Sailing League goes Bol d'or 2022

SSLA has the intention to charter out the six J/70's of the League for teams that want to experience the Bol d'Or 2022. In case you are interested, please forward your interest to Philipp Koch (philipp.koch@firstframe.net).

Best regards,

Philipp Koch
President Swiss Sailing League Association

ErFG Private Banking

Streuli
pharma